Library Special Collections
– Physical location temporarily closed –
Please email spec-coll@library.ucla.edu

What To Know...

1) Library Special Collections is open to everyone!

2) LSC materials can be accessed by searching the UC Library Search and the Online Archive of California;
   -> A selection of digitized materials are accessible at digital.library.ucla.edu

3) Register for a user account and be sure to submit your requests several days before you wish to access them (most items are stored offsite).

4) LSC reference staff are here to help you navigate the depth and breadth of LSC collections.

5) If you have questions, check out our FAQ online or send us an email.

About Us

Special Collections is the broad term for the rare and often unique materials held by UCLA’s libraries that enable original research using primary source documents. Items range from books and manuscripts to personal papers and archival collections in many analog and digital formats. Users access materials in the Ahmanson-Murphy Reading Room conveniently located on the A-Level of the Charles E. Young Research Library.

Where to Find Us

A1713 Charles E. Young Research Library

bit.ly/ucla_lsc | spec-coll@library.ucla.edu